Providing strategic counsel on a variety of sophisticated legal matters for 55 years, the attorneys of Mitchell Williams bring together decades of diverse professional experience and extensive relationships to offer clients in Arkansas and across the United States the most comprehensive services and solutions possible. As progressive leaders in the legal community, we work as advocates and partners to help companies meet the complex business needs required to succeed in today's challenging economic climate.

The foundation of our success has been, and continues to be, our solid long-term relationships with clients. The terms "partner" and "teamwork" are not clichés at our firm - they are the core of who we are. We strive to foster personalized, one-on-one lawyer-client relationships while at the same time emphasizing the team approach to solving complex legal problems. This unique approach to practicing law allows our clients to benefit by receiving a nationally-recognized and proven team of legal advisors who are committed to proactively helping them achieve their business goals, and who are prepared to do what it takes to add value as a strategic partner.

Today, the firm employs 76 attorneys from four offices in Arkansas, Texas and New York. Many of Mitchell Williams' lawyers joined the firm with already distinguished careers in government, business and law. From working in the public sector as department heads, staff attorneys or general counsel to various state and federal agencies, to serving as in-house counsel for major local and regional corporations, our attorneys bring the benefit of first-hand experience to their work.
