

Walter Wright, Jr.
wwright@mwlaw.com
(501) 688.8839

2016 Arkansas Energy Efficiency + Sustainability Conference & Trade Show: September 7-8, Little Rock, Arkansas

Arkansas Environmental, Energy, and Water Law Blog

07/07/2016

The 2016 Arkansas Energy Efficiency + Sustainability Conference & Trade Show ("Conference") will be held September 7th and 8th in Little Rock, Arkansas.

The conference is jointly sponsored by the Arkansas Energy Engineers and the United States Green Building Council.

Highlights of the conference are identified as:

- 20+ educational breakout sessions
- 300+ participants
- Advanced Practice Workshop: Learn to Create an Energy Star Portfolio or dive deep into a Rating Systems Review of LEEDv 4, SITES, and WELL
- Tradeshow with 50+ vendors with the latest in energy technology and sustainability services (including a vendor reception)
- Continuing Education Units for AIA/USGBC/PE – Earn up to 12 hours
- Tours of LEED Platinum buildings
- Conference Registration Fees for $125, with discounts for members and early registration before August 25th

The conference will be held at the Holiday Inn Airport.

Examples of topics and educational sessions include:

- Commissioning
- Lighting
- EE Policy Update
- PACE
- Citywide sustainability
- Designing Green Schools
- School District Energy Savings Case Study
- HVAC Performance
- Controls and Automation

A brochure providing both the agenda and registration information can be downloaded here.

