

Walter Wright, Jr.
wwright@mwlaw.com
(501) 688.8839

Successful State Conservation, Recovery, and Management of Wildlife: October 10th U.S. Senate Environment and Public Works Hearing (Witnesses Include Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation)

10/10/2018

The Environment and Public Works Committee ("Committee") of the United States Senate is holding a hearing today titled:

From Yellowstone's Grizzly Bear to the Chesapeake's Delmarva Fox Squirrel – Successful State Conservation, Recovery, and Management Wildlife ("Hearing")

Scheduled witnesses include Mike McCormick who serves as President of the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation.

Additional scheduled witnesses include:

- John Kennedy, Deputy Director, Wyoming Game and Fish Department
- Cindy Dohner, Former Regional Director, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Services

Examples of species recovery and conservation goals identified in the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation's written statement include:

- Longleaf Pine
- The Mississippi Bee Stewardship Program
- Florida Landowner Assistance Program
- Kentucky-Black Vulture Depredation
- American Alligator
- Louisiana Black Bear
- White-tailed Deer
- Wild Turkey

A link to the three scheduled witnesses written statements can be found here.