Question:
How Many Have an Active
NetDMR Account?

What is NetDMR?

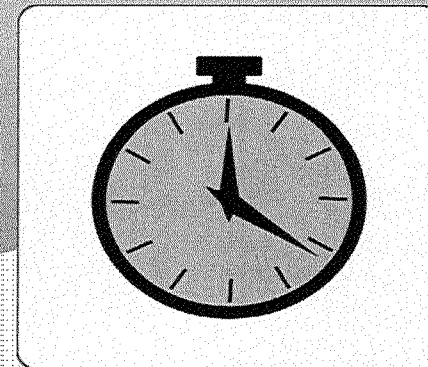

- ◎ Web-based tool
- ◎ Allows NPDES permittees to electronically sign and submit DMRs and attachments to EPA and ADEQ.

Why NetDMR?

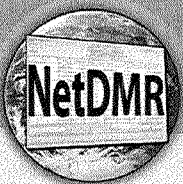

- ◎ EPA Electronic Reporting Rule finalized December 2015
- ◎ All NPDES permittees are required to submit DMRs through NetDMR by December 21, 2016

Benefits of NetDMR

- Eliminates paper DMRs
- Improves data quality & availability
- Encourages proper reporting
- Provides email confirmation of DMR submission

More Benefits

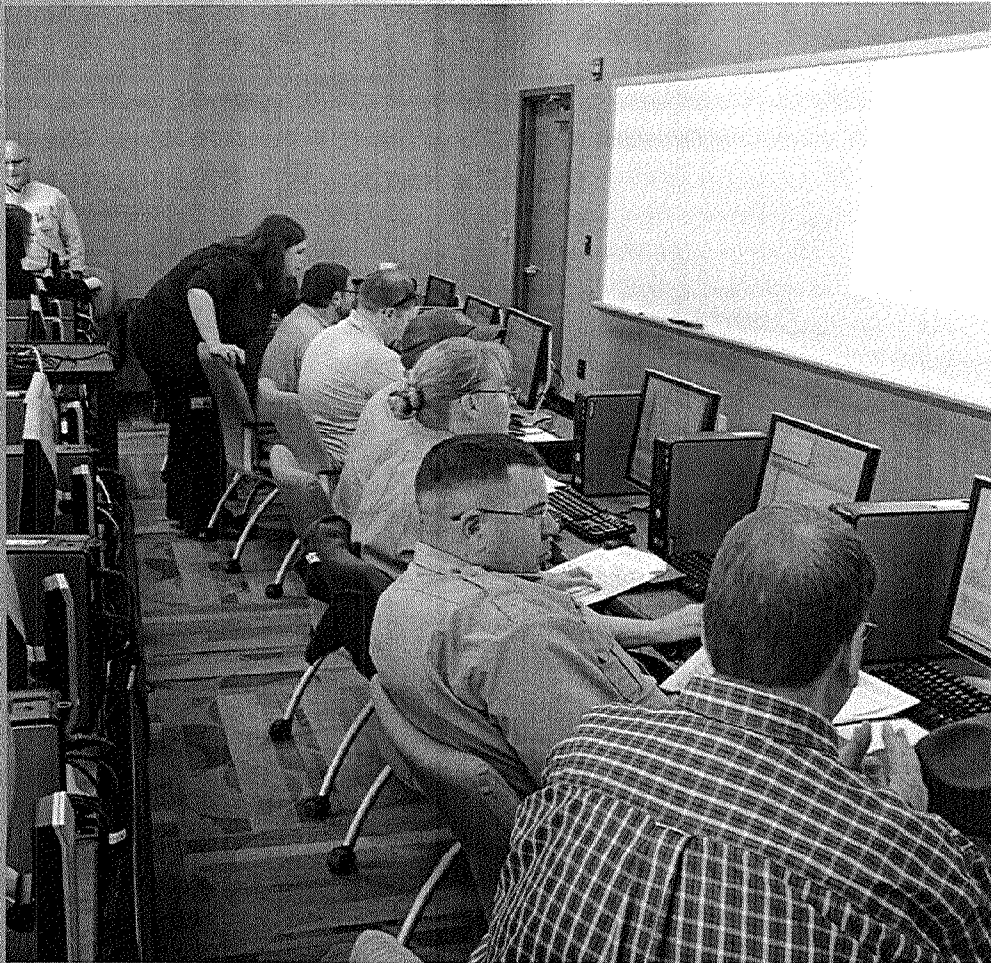

- ◎ Streamlined reporting method for facilities
- ◎ Ability to document reasons for missing data
- ◎ Attach supplemental documentation i.e. (non-compliance reports)
- ◎ Sign your DMRs from anywhere (vacation)

ADEQ Training

- The Department is offering free, computer based NetDMR training.
- Two sessions every Tuesday
- Must pre-register for a training session

Who Needs an Account?

- ◎ The Signatory, whoever signs the DMRS, must be the first to request access in NetDMR.
 - Signatories must be the Cognizant or Responsible Officials for a facility.
- ◎ All Signatory roles must be approved by ADEQ.
- ◎ The original, signed Subscriber Agreement must be mailed to the ADEQ for NetDMR access.
- ◎ The facility users will request access as a Permittee.

Who Needs an Account?, Cont'd.

- ◎ The facility may have multiple roles for one permit.
 - Signatory – Data Entry, Edit, Signs and Submits DMRs, and approves other roles
 - Edit – Data Entry and Edit only
 - View – Looks at DMRs only

- ◎ Each user must create a separate account.

Who Needs an Account?, Cont'd.

- ◎ Labs, Consultants, and Contractors will request access as a Data Provider after the Signatory's account is approved by ADEQ.
 - Cannot sign and submit DMRS. Data Entry and Edit roles only.
- ◎ The Signatory will approve these accounts.
