

Nathan D. Coulter

Associate

Email: ncoulter@mwlaw.com

Nathan D. Coulter is an associate in the Business Practice Group. Nathan graduated from the Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, where he was a member of the Phillip C. Jessup International Moot Court team. He was also active on the Student Bar Association and served as an abstractor for the Arkansas Bar Association's Real Estate Review during his first year of legal studies. Nathan's practice is primarily focused in the areas of real estate, commercial transactions, and corporate law.

Education

Washington University School of Law
J.D. - (2019)

University of Arkansas
B.A. in Economics & Political Science, cum laude - (2014)

Bar Admissions

Arkansas

Experience

- Represents clients in commercial real estate transactions concerning the conveyance, purchase, development, and leasing of property
- Serves as counsel to financial institutions, providing legal guidance on lending and transactional matters
- Advises corporations and other businesses on general corporate matters, including entity selection and formation, contract drafting and negotiation, and corporate governance
- Counsel to various business entities with respect to the formation, merger, restructuring, acquisition, and sale of businesses

Involvement

- Captain, United States Marine Corps Reserve
- Former member, Child Development Center Board of Directors