Blake Z. Brizzolara represents businesses and individuals in a wide range of business disputes, commercial litigation and tort disputes. He focuses his practice on complex business tort litigation, breach of contract disputes, insurance defense and trust and estate disputes. He has successfully represented clients in a complicated trust lawsuit and breach of contract disputes. Blake works diligently to understand his clients' goals and uses that perspective to help them successfully navigate the litigation process or create dispute avoidance strategies. Prior to entering private practice, Blake served as a law clerk for the Honorable Kristine G. Baker of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas.
