Christina Chen

Associate

Email:	cchen@mwlaw.com
Phone:	501.688.8818

Christina Chen focuses her practice on complex business and corporate matters. She assists with representing clients in transactional matters related to corporate governance, real estate, securities, commercial lending and tax. She also assists with the representation of insurance regulatory clients on corporate governance and transactional matters. While in law school, Christina externed for the Veteran's Affairs Office of General Counsel assisting with employment matters and for a Fortune 1 company on the Global Governance team focusing on internal code of conduct and ethics issues.

Practice Areas

Business and Corporate Law
Municipal and Public Finance
Securities, Corporate Governance and Public Companies
Real Estate

Education

University of Arkansas Little Rock William H. Bowen School of Law,
J.D. - (2023)

Arkansas State University
B.S. in International Business and Marketing Management - (2016)

Bar Admissions

Arkansas

Experience

- Researched blue sky laws and drafted private offering documents.
- Assists in the representation of insurance company clients and drafts stock purchase agreements and corporate governance documents.
- Prepares documents and conduct due diligence to assist with real estate transactions.
- Drafts loan documents for commercial lending for floorplan loans and construction loans.
- Drafts contracts such as supply contracts, service contracts, employment agreements for businesses.
- Prepares operating agreements and entity formation documents.
- Assists with corporate matters such as drafting committee assessments, tender offer documents, and employee prospectus documents.

Involvement

- Arkansas Bar Association
- Young Lawyers Section Member
- Alumna, Zeta Tau Alpha Fraternity
- Former Member, Jessup International Moot Court Team (2021-2022)