

Alia B. Reddell

Associate

Email:	areddell@mwlaw.com
Phone:	(501) 688.8830

Alia Reddell works alongside the litigation team and firm colleagues to find solutions to complex matters. She assists in the representation of clients in a range of commercial litigation, construction litigation and employment matters. Honed during her time as a research assistant to the vice chancellor in the University of Arkansas Division of Research and Innovation, Alia developed sophisticated skills in research and enjoys the problem-solving aspect of the legal field. She is fluent in Arabic.

Practice Areas

Employment and Labor
Commercial Litigation
Construction Law

Education

University of Arkansas School of Law
J.D., summa cum laude - (2024)

University of Arkansas,
Bachelor of Arts in Political Science - (2021)

University of Arkansas,
Bachelor of Science in Business Administration - (2021)

Bar Admissions

Arkansas

Experience

- Researches and assists with administrative law matters including procedural and evidentiary issues.
- Researched and prepared appellate briefs to the Arkansas Court of Appeals on issues involving mortgage foreclosures and deeds.
- Researched issues under the Miller Act for construction contract disputes.
- Conducted legal research and analyses to prepare legal memoranda and motions on the National Labor Relations Act, Arkansas Freedom of Information Act and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act.
- Researched and prepared legal memoranda on workers' compensation laws in Arkansas to develop case strategy and defenses for workers' compensation claims.
- Prepared deposition summary reports to assist in trial preparation.

Professional Recognition

- Former Law Notes Editor, Arkansas Law Review (2023-2024)
- Staff Editor, Arkansas Law Review (2022-2023)
- Semifinalist, Ben J. Altheimer Moot Court Competition (2023)

Involvement

- Arkansas Bar Association
- National Arab American Bar Association