Bethany A. Michau handles complex litigation matters across diverse fields and manages both residential and commercial real estate transactions. She brings hands-on trial experience and valuable support to the litigation team where she assists in managing complex caseloads from initial pleadings through resolution. Bethany works diligently to understand her clients' goals and uses that perspective to help them successfully navigate the litigation process, create dispute avoidance strategies and finalize real estate transactions. Prior to joining Mitchell Williams, Bethany was in private practice and worked as a legal extern with a Fortune 1 company's Global Governance team, focusing on Consumer Protection Compliance.
