Beaver Watershed Alliance Speaker Series: Ozark Weather Patterns/Beaver Lake U.S. Corps of Engineers Operations

06/05/2020

The Beaver Watershed Alliance ("BWA") announced in its June newsletter the next speaker/topics for its Quarterly Speaker Series.

BWA states that the speakers will include:

- Dan Skoff, Chief Meteorologist KNWA Fox 24
- John Balgavy, Deputy Chief of Engineering and Construction Division (retired), Little Rock District of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers

Mr. Skoff's topic is stated to be the short-term and long-term weather patterns for the Ozarks.

Mr. Balgavy will discuss the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers operations side of Beaver Lake. Specifically, he will address how such operations have been influenced by changing weather patterns.

The zoom webinar will be held on June 18th from 12:00-1:00. Registration information can be found here.
