The Illinois River Watershed Partnership ("IRWP") has an opening for a position titled:

Program Manager for Youth Education and Water Quality Monitoring ("Position")

The Position is described as being responsible:

. . . for fulfilling youth education and water quality monitoring programs.

IRWP describes three sets of responsibilities for the position including:

- Monitoring Programming
- Youth Education Programming
- IRWP Operations and Maintenance

Each of these three programmatic responsibilities are further described in the IRWP notice.

Qualifications and requirements are stated to include:

. . . Preferably have a bachelor's degree with a minimum of three years' work experience in the areas of non-profit, conservation, or water quality research.

Additional information supplied in the IRWP notice includes a discussion of "professional skills required" and compensation.

The IRWP describes its mission as improving:

. . . the integrity of the Illinois River through public education, community outreach, and implementation of conservation and restoration projects.
