The Arkansas Water Resources Center ("AWRC") has announced the dates and topic lineup for the 2025 Arkansas Agriculture, Forest and Water Conference ("Conference").

The Conference will be held July 22-24, 2025.

AWRC states that the annual event:

…brings together researchers, policymakers, and community members to discuss critical issues shaping Arkansas's natural resources.

The conference will be addressing the following topics:

- Emerging Research on PFAS and HABs
- Forests, Emerging Marshes, and Wetlands
- Lake Frances Bottomland Forests, Wetlands, and Vision
- Riparian Buffer Programs, Lessons Learned
- Climate, Hydrologic, and Watershed Drivers of Water Quality
- A New Approach to Conservation and Recreation Management of Rivers in Arkansas
- Groundwater, Droughts, and Agriculture
- Updates from the Natural Resources Division
- Arkansas Water Young Professionals

The Conference will be held at the Don Tyson Center for Agricultural Sciences in Fayetteville, Arkansas.
