

Walter Wright, Jr.
wwright@mwlaw.com
(501) 688.8839

Enhancing Sustainability in the Food and Beverage Industry: September 28th Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality/Mississippi Manufactures Association Workshop

09/10/2018

The Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality and Mississippi Manufactures Association/Manufacturing Extension Partnership have scheduled a September 28th workshop titled:

Enhancing Sustainability in the Food and Beverage Industry

The workshop will be held in the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality Hearing Room in Jackson, Mississippi.

Topics and speakers include:

- Importance of Food and Beverage Industry in Mississippi/Importance of Sustainability
- Solid Waste
- Recycling (Jennifer Milner-Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality)
- Hazardous Waste/Universal Waste/RCRA (Brad Justice - Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality)
- Water (point source) (Chris Messemore - Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality)
- Water (non-point source) (Anne Porter - Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality)
- Energy Efficiency
- Lean and Green (Ty Posey - Mississippi Polymer Institute)
- Food Safety (Susan Bates – Mississippi State Department of Health)
- E3 (Economy, Energy, Environment) (Joe Jordan – MMA-MEP and Jay Pate – Peco Foods)

The cost of the workshop is $40.00 and registration information is at <https://bit.ly/2MNizsF>.