

National Association of SARA Title III Program Officials

Concerned with the Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know Act

The National Association of SARA Title III Program Officials is holding its Mid-Year Workshop and Meeting meeting in Rogers, Arkansas. November 3-6, 2025. The NASTTPO Foundation, Inc.¹, a 501(c)3, is allied with NASTTPO for this conference and is the entity that will arrange for exhibitors and sponsorships. The Foundation is excited to announce an exciting opportunity to participate in the 2025 Mid-Year Training Workshop and Meeting as either an exhibitor or sponsor. Our attendance is expected in the range of 200 plus, which includes individuals from all the organizations and roles represented by our membership.

NASTTPO is made up of members and staff of State Emergency Response Commissions (SERCs), Tribal Emergency Response Commissions (TERCs), Local Emergency Planning Committees (LEPCs), various federal agencies, and private industry. Members include state, tribal, or local government employees, as well as private sector representatives with Emergency Planning and Community Right-to-Know (EPCRA) program responsibilities, such as health, occupational safety, first response, environmental, and emergency management. Your sponsorship: Helps support the Conference by: Highlighting tools and resources that can help emergency preparedness activities. And ensure the safety of the whole community before, during, and after a disaster.

- Share specific information about how your organization can partner with these organizations before, during, and after a disaster.
- Share best and promising practices for whole community involvement before, during, and after emergencies and disasters.

All Sponsors and Exhibitors have the opportunity to:

- Meet with over 200+ professionals from emergency management, state and local emergency planning and response fields.
- Have a table in the Exhibitor area if interested.
- Attend any or all sessions of the Conference.
- Network with attendees during the Networking Socials at 6 PM on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

¹ The NASTTPO Foundation, Inc. is the fiscal partner with NASTTPO for sponsorship and exhibitor transactions towards the 2025. If you are selected as a sponsor or exhibitor, you will receive an invoice from the NASTTPO Foundation, Inc. for all fees associated with sponsorship and exhibiting at this conference.
